Plaintiff,

v.

RICKY PERSON, C.O. HERNANDEZ,
TANYA TILOT, and BELINDA
ERNSTING,

Defendants.

Case No. 18-CV-1812-JPS

ORDER

Plaintiff filed the three above-captioned actions while incarcerated in the Wisconsin prison system. She was granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis in the first two cases. 18-CV-1237, (Docket #13); 18-CV-1409, (Docket #7). The Court has not granted such leave yet in the third case, though she has already paid the statutorily prescribed partial filing fee for that case. See 18-CV-1812, (Docket #6). On December 17, 2018, Plaintiff notified the Court that she is no longer incarcerated. See, e.g., 18-CV-1812, (Docket #8).

This development means that Plaintiff must now re-apply for in forma pauperis status as to each of these cases. See Robbins v. Switzer, 104 F.3d 895 (7th Cir. 1997). The Court will supply Plaintiff with a copy of this District's form motion for non-prisoners seeking in forma pauperis treatment. She must return the completed form by January 24, 2019, or these actions will be dismissed for want of prosecution. Of course, she can also simply pay the remainder of the filing fees she owes. Plaintiff may call the Clerk of the Court for information on what amount she owes in each case.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that Plaintiff shall either pay the full filing fee owed in these matters or submit completed motions for leave to proceed in forma pauperis on or before January 24, 2019.

Dated at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, this 3rd day of January, 2019.
